WRITING 1

Write about your love / hate / ambivalent relationship with technology. (Such as about smartphones, AI, social media, the printing press, electricity...)

Write about light.

Write a versus piece. Cats versus dogs. Rock versus country. Good versus evil. Vanilla versus chocolate. Etcetera.

WRITING 2

Write about this writing workshop. (Doing this will help us grow, learn, invite others, etc.)

What does this workshop mean to you?

How does it help? Why does it work?

What's your advice about multiplying this into other communities?

Alternately — what annoys or bothers you about the workshop, about Matt, or anything else at this moment?

Begin a piece with one of the following: Homelessness is...

Home is...

I will...

I should...
